

Intersectionality and Privilege : equality, inclusion, diversity (S1/S2)

This course will be : focusing on how different organizations, groups, professionals... are aiming to move from the awareness of privilege, to action on questions such as unconscious bias, micro-aggressions, and allyship.

This course aims to : create an open, honest and safe space for learning and discussion on these themes, based on readings, case studies... from the anglophone world.

This course won't be : a platform for any particular group, or for privilege shaming.

Requirements :

C1 level.

Key words : reading, research, written reflections, workshops, presentations, creativity, open-mindedness, curiosity, introspection, active participation.